About the Workshop

Yoga is a scientific discipline that aims to harmoniously develop the whole of body, mind and intellect. The effects of yoga can be scientifically analyzed and measured in the physical, mental and intellectual planes.

This workshop aims to disseminate this scientific aspect of yogic science and train a group of young students who are pursuing academic study in Yoga at B.Sc./M.Sc./PhD level. Workshop in a camp-like environment is envisaged in order to properly impart such knowledge and training.

The target group will comprise students drawn from various Universities in India studying Yoga programs (Yoga education/Yoga therapy etc.) at B.Sc./M.Sc./PhD level. Faculty members engaged in teaching Yoga at various levels are welcome. There will be two parallel sessions of hands-on workshops, one lecture session and one session on meditation, all conducted by competent monks of Ramakrishna Mission and the faculty members of the Department of Sports Science and Yoga.

This workshop is being conducted under the aegis of UNESCO Chair in Inclusive Adapted Physical Education and Yoga (ID 1004)
